

S. 2044

Mr. Thomas

S. 2102

Mr. Bridges

1. Central Intelligence under Council of Common Defense -

Secretary of State

Secretary of Common Defense

Chairman of National Security Resources Bd.

President presiding at all meetings which he attends.

Assistant Secretary - Coordinator

Central Intelligence in the Council of Common Defense -

President - Chairman

Coordinator of Common Defense Dep. Chr.

Secretary of State

Secretary for the Army

Secretary for the Navy

Secretary for the Air Forces

2. Director of Central Intelligence to be appointed by the President by and with advice of Senate
Compensation $12000 per annum

Same

3. There shall be assigned to duty with the Agency such military and civilian personnel of the departments and agencies of the government as the Council of Common Defense may, from time to time, recommend and the President approve.

The Agency's membership shall include a commissioned officer of the Army, of the Navy and of the Air Forces, representatives of the Departments of State and Treasury, a representative of the F.B.I. and such other representatives of Agencies and Departments of the Government as the Coordinator of Common Defense may, from time to time, recommend and the President approve.

4. Duties

Under the supervision and direction of the Council of Common Defense plan, develop and coordinate the foreign intelligence activities of the N. S. in such manner as to assure the most effective accomplishment of the intelligence missions relating to national security. It shall -

a. Correlate and evaluate intelligence relating to national security and provide appropriate dissemination of resulting strategic and national policy intelligence.

b. Make plans for the coordination of intelligence activities relating to the national defense and recommend to Council of Common Defense the establishment of overall policies and objectives.

c. Perform for benefit of Agencies services of common concern as the Council of Common Defense determines can be more efficiently handled centrally.

d. Such other functions as the President of Council of Common Defense may prescribe.

5. The responsibility and authority of the departments and other agencies of the Government to collect, evaluate, correlate, and disseminate intelligence shall not be affected, except to the extent that the Agency may relieve them of such authority and responsibility pursuant to provisions of sub-section

(b) (Item 4 herein)

6. Police powers, etc.

None

Duties

Under the supervision and direction of the Council of Common Defense formulate intelligence programs relating to problems of common defense; direct and conduct studies of such problems; compile, analyze, evaluate, and disseminate intelligence concerning military, international, economic, and technological developments gathered by all government agencies, including the several military services; coordinate efforts of all intelligence gathering agencies; perform, for the benefit of such agencies, such services of common concern as the coordinator of Common Defense determines can be more efficiently handled centrally; advise President and Council of Common Defense on application of intelligence to common defense; other functions as may be prescribed.

The Agency shall in no way relieve the Department of State, Treasury, War, Navy and Air, or other governmental agencies, of their responsibility for, or authority over, intelligence work under their jurisdiction.

Same

7. The Director of the Agency shall be responsible for fully protecting intelligence sources and methods.

Same

8. No Provision

Agency shall have a staff headed by an executive secretary - appointed from civil life by the President-Senate consent. $10,000 per annum. He may with approval of the Director employ part time advisory personnel. May be non-compensatory or paid at rate not to exceed $25 per day.

9. Agency shall make use of facilities and services of the military and civilian intelligence agencies - may conduct intelligence projects through or in cooperation with, such agencies.

Same, except it names Departments of State, Treasury, Justice, War, Navy, Air and other governmental agencies available for intelligence work.

10. Agencies authorized and directed to make services available and to participate in conduct of its projects.

Same, except it states, "participate to the fullest extent in the objectives of the Agency".

11. No Provision

The Agency may transfer funds to other governmental agencies for intelligence work included within the programs formulated by the Agency.

12. To the extent recommended by the Council of Common Defense and approved by the President (1) the intelligence operations of the departments and other agencies of the government shall be open to inspection by the Director in connection with the planning functions of the Agency and (2) the intelligence possessed by such departments and agencies shall be made freely available to the Director for correlation, evaluation, or dissemination.

No Provision

13. No Provision

Annual report to Council of Common Defense.